IMPORTANT MAILING NOTICE

All mailings from the Department, including renewal notices and regulatory digests will be sent to the physical address of your establishment. Mailings cannot be sent to your home address as the establishment physical address must be kept in the computer.

If your post office does not deliver mail to the establishment's physical address, you might want to consider getting a post office box so that you will receive your important documents from the department.

Provide the Department with your establishment's physical address AND post office box.
